- "Every human is like all other humans, some other humans, and no other human" – Clyde Kluckhohn
- "Most of my important lessons about life have come from recognizing how others from a different culture view things" – Edgar H. Schein
- "One of the most effective ways to learn about yourself is by taking seriously the cultures of others. It forces you to pay attention to those details of life which differentiate them from you" – Edward T. Hall
- "Each man calls barbarism whatever is not his own practice." Michel de Montaigne
- "In that renewal there is no longer Greek and Jew, circumcised and uncircumcised, barbarian, Scythian, slave and free; but Christ is all and in all! "- Colossians 3:11
- "To the Jews I became as a Jew, in order to win Jews. To those under the law I became as one under the law (though I myself am not under the law) so that I might win those under the law. To those outside the law I became as one outside the law (though I am not free from God's law but am under Christ's law) so that I might win those outside the law. To the weak I became weak, so that I might win the weak. I have become all things to all people, so that I might by any means save some. I do it all for the sake of the gospel, so that I may share in its blessings."- 1 Corinthians 9:20-23
